
Germany: Caritas, online platform providing social services to young people and adults in need. 1,700 centres have joined in

Immagine non disponibile

. “Men experience crises and stress differently from women. In the analogue world, SKM’s consultancy services have taken this into consideration for a long time. Now, our online services reflect this as well”, the president of Caritas, Peter Neher, states. “The pandemic is making digital consultancy services more important than ever. They enable us to be on people’s side, despite the restrictions”. Since the outbreak of the pandemic in March 2020, 550 consultancy centres have joined the platform: now, there are 1,707 of them. That’s why about 2,100 new consultants have been trained, now totalling 4,700.

Valentina Bombelli